

DEMOCRATIC TORNADO ELECTS ROOSEVELT

Nation Calls New York Governor To Presidency

REPUBLICANS SWEEP COUNTY

Franklin D. Roosevelt Sweeps Into Office With Mighty Majority Carrying Democratic Ticket With Him in Many Places.

(By The Associated Press.)

America's voters conferred on Franklin D. Roosevelt so tremendous a victory that it not only gave the Democratic party unshakable control of congress, but very nearly cleared the state of Republican governors.

As the popular vote mounted to dizzy heights, heading for 40,000,000 or more, the returns from congressional races indicated the Democrats would hold the next Senate by a majority of a score at least, while clinching their mastery of the House with a possible two-thirds of the 435 membership.

Of the 35 governorships at stake, Republicans had won but two definitely and appeared likely to win no more than another four. Of states not electing governors this year, only four have Republican chief executives.

Roosevelt and his running mate, John N. Garner, early today had piled up more than 19,000,000 votes out of only slightly more than half the election districts of the country. The same territory had given President Hoover only 9,600,000.

The Republican casualty list in congress was terrific. Smoot, Walter, McNamara, Blanton, Jones, names to be remembered in the Senate, all were defeated. These men were the heart of the party's "old guard." The house toll was but a repetition.

Leading Six States.
President Hoover was leading in only six states of the 48, carrying the handful of 59 electoral votes, and even in some of these his margin was very small. Connecticut, complete, was his by only 8,500. New Hampshire, also complete, was kept in line by a scant 3,500, and on more than two million votes tallied in Pennsylvania he had less than a 200,000 lead.

Dormant but by no means forgotten while candidates discussed economic issues through the campaign, prohibition and its future was very much involved in the day's voting.

Repeal Inevitable.
Roosevelt and his vice-presidential running mate, John N. Garner of Texas, were elected on a platform pledging the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and immediate legislation of beer. Their ability to fulfill this pledge hung, however, on the elections to congress.

An analysis of the presidential returns showed no section untouched by the Democratic triumph. The south made up for its 1928 departure by returning with emphasis to the Democratic fold, carrying with them the sometimes debatable border states.

In the east, they Delaware gave Hoover its three electoral votes, while the Democrats were sweeping New York and New Jersey. The present chief executive led, but inconclusively, in Pennsylvania, in which the strongly Republican Philadelphia districts gave him a vote roughly 100,000 below that which party leaders there generally count upon.

New York went for Roosevelt and lost no time about it. Eastern Republican leaders conceded the state both to Governor Roosevelt and Herbert Lehman, Democratic gubernatorial candidate early in the vote-counting. New York city gave the Governor an 800,000 plurality to offset a Hoover advantage of 200,000 in other parts of the state.

New England Republican.
In New England, Maine which wandered off the Republican reservation in September, was back with a Hoover lead of some sixty to sixty-five thousand. New Hampshire, Vermont and Connecticut were wanted safe for the Hoover column. Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, which the prediction makers had wanted as uncertain, lined up for Roosevelt.

Aside from the six states already mentioned as for Hoover, not a single state west of the Alleghenies, on the basis of returns early today, gave its electoral votes to Hoover, not even the state of his birth, Iowa, or that of his present residence, California.

Michigan for the first time since 1852 found itself with a vote that, though inconclusive early today, strongly tended to list the state for the Democrats. The customarily Republican states of Indiana, Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas gave the Democratic candidate sweeping pluralities. On the Pacific Coast the tale was the same.

Lehman Elected Governor; Senator Wagner Re-elected

Democrats Apparently Gain Control of State Senate By One Seat—Republicans Retain Hold on Assembly—Democratic Tidal Wave Sweeps Up the Hudson From New York City.

New York, Nov. 9 (AP).—Lieut. Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, fondly described by his chief, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, as "that splendid right arm of mine," was the Democratic governor-elect of New York today.

The Democratic tidal wave that swept up the Hudson from New York City and overflowed into normally Republican upstate counties gave Roosevelt the state's 47 electoral votes. Lehman the governorship, Senator Robert F. Wagner re-election, carried the entire state Democratic ticket to victory, and apparently gained the Democratic control of the state senate by one seat.

Overcoming an upstate plurality of 234,000 amassed by President Hoover, Governor Roosevelt coasted to victory in the state as he gained a plurality of 162,000 in the metropolitan district.

With only 388 of the state's 8,837 districts counted, the vote was:

Roosevelt 2,467,368
Hoover 1,529,552
Governor Roosevelt lost his home town of Hyde Park by 139 votes, the total being: Hoover, 1,617; Roosevelt, 878. However, he carried his election district by five votes.

The vote for governor, with 520 districts missing was:

Lehman 2,589,476
William J. Donovan (R) 1,709,465

Lehman even surpassed the plurality accorded the national ticket in the vote he attained in the New York city area, rolling up a plurality of 383,918.

Not far behind in the Metropolitan District was Wagner with a plurality of 320,610. The total for 7,354 districts in the senatorial contest was:

Wagner 2,300,972
George Z. Medaille (R) 1,419,860
D. Leigh Colvin (Law Preservation Party) 15,793

The State Senate
In the state senatorial fight the Democrats gained three seats and lost two bringing the unofficial standing to 26 Democrats and 25 Republicans. As for the assembly, the past lineup of 39 Republicans to 70 Democrats appeared to have been changed to 76 Republicans and 72 Democrats with two contests undecided.

In the Senate the Democrats elected Albert Wald in the 17th Manhattan District, and Kernan and Ross in the Onondaga and Rensselaer Districts respectively. In the 7th District, George Blumberg, Republican, defeated John A. Hastings, Democrat.

The two undecided assembly districts were in Columbia and the first Broome districts, in the former a Republican being in the lead in the incomplete returns and in the latter a Democrat.

O'Brien Elected Mayor
In New York city the Democratic wave was at its strongest carrying Serrano John P. O'Brien into the office of Mayor by a plurality of 116,738—breaking the record of half a million margin set in 1929 by James J. Walker. O'Brien was elected for the one year of Walker's unexpired term.

The surprise of the New York majority vote, however, was the support given acting Mayor Joseph P. McKee, who polled a total of 135,215 votes.

To vote for McKee it was necessary to write his name on a roll in the voting machines, a complicated procedure.

Mrs. Pratt and La Guardia Defeated
Perhaps the most startling upsets in the state were in the congressional races in New York city which saw the defeat of Mrs. Ruth Baker Pratt, Republican, in the 17th District, and Fiorello La Guardia, Independent Republican, in the 20th.

Among other interesting contests Fred Simon, Democrat, defeated Representative Frederick Davenport, Republican, in the 33rd District; Alfred F. Selzer, Democrat, won over Representative Edmund Cooke, Republican, in the 41st, and Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, Democratic action of the wealthy racing family, failed to unseat his Long Island friend, Representative Robert L. Bacon, Republican, in the first district.

Prohibition Change Seems Inevitable

Washington, Nov. 9 (AP).—A new Congress with substantial wet gains was indicated early today.

Anti-prohibition measures also were rolling up big majorities in nine states.

With a large membership in both houses of Congress still to be classified as to their present attitude on the twelve-year-old prohibition laws, final returns will have to be recorded before the battling wet and dry organizations can say whether majorities will turn up for modification of the Volstead Act or whether the required two-thirds will submit a repeal or revision amendment of the Constitution.

On the basis of returns in questionnaires by wet organizations (the drys having made no parallel projection line up) the returns early today showed out of the 25 senators elected 17, all Democrats, favor repeal, two Democrats for prohibition, one Republican for submission, and two Republicans hold views which have not been ascertained.

The same wet organization classify senate holdovers as:

Democrats favoring repeal 10; Republicans 4; Democrats favoring submission 4; Republicans 6; Democrats favoring prohibition 3; Republicans 3; for modification of the Volstead Act, Republican 1; Democrat views unknown 14; Republicans 16; Farmer Labor 1.

Of the house members elect, Democrats favoring repeal 118; Republicans 25; Democrats favoring submission 10; Republicans 8; Democrats favoring prohibition 4; Republicans 10; views unknown 40, all Democrats.

Connecticut adopted by a seven to one margin a proposal to petition congress to submit a repeal amendment to the state.

Michigan carried by more than two to one a measure eliminating the bone dry clause from the state constitution.

Louisiana approved overwhelmingly two proposals, one to repeal its state enforcement act and another to petition congress to call a constitutional convention to propose repeal or revision of the 18th amendment.

New Jersey voters piled up a 10 to 1 lead for repeal of the state enforcement law.

Other anti-prohibition proposals were rolling up big votes in California, Washington, Oregon, Colorado and Wyoming.

ELLENVILLE BOARDING HOUSE BURNED TUESDAY

The large boarding house, built a few years ago, of Benjamin Levine, situated on the Greenfield road about a mile west of Ellenville, burned to the ground between nine and ten o'clock Tuesday night. Nothing could be done to check the blaze as there is no water supply of consequence nearby. The house was situated on a hill not far from the Levine residence property, formerly known as the Jollie place and later occupied by William L. Carpenter. Fortunately there was no wind and the fire was confined to the building in which it started.

"SHARE THE WORK" GROU TO MEET THIS EVENING

People interested in the "share the work" movement will meet at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8 o'clock. This plan is approved by the Chamber of Commerce, Uptown Business Men's Association, Central Business Men's Association and Downtown Business Men's Association. The meeting is called by Clarence Rowland, chairman of the local organization.

Ohio in Democratic Column

Columbus, O., Nov. 9 (AP).—One of the principle battle-grounds of the presidential campaign, Ohio, today apparently had delivered a decisive victory to nearly every candidate on the Democratic ticket. It was only the third time Ohio has turned away from the Republican fold in a national election in 78 years.

Kingston Gives Republican Local Candidates Majority

And Judging From Vote Cast City Would Have Been Carried By Entire Republican Ticket If Four of the Voting Machines Had Not Failed to Record Vote on Head of Ticket.

Kingston on Tuesday gave all of the local candidates on the Republican ticket majorities over their Democratic opponents, and although the returns as tabulated show that Governor Roosevelt and Colonel Lehman carried the city by small majorities, there is no question but that if the vote that was lost when four voting machines failed to register in three of the wards of the city the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom would have been given majorities. All of the machines that failed to record the vote were in Republican wards which gave the rest of the Republican ticket majorities over the Democrats.

According to the returns, with the vote from the four machines that failed to register, President Hoover received 5,541 votes and Governor Roosevelt, 5,932, a majority for Roosevelt of 428. Mr. Thomas the Socialist candidate received 119 votes in the city.

Herbert H. Lehman, the Democratic candidate for governor, received a majority of 303 over William J. Donovan, who would have carried the city if the lost vote could have been recorded. Lehman received 7,029 votes and Donovan 6,727.

Philip A. Goodwin, the Republican candidate for congress, carried the city by a small majority. Senator Arthur H. Wicks carried the city over James H. Hyer by a majority of 571. Wicks received 7,221 votes and Hyer, 6,650.

J. Edward Conway, the Republican candidate for member of assembly, also carried Kingston obtaining a majority in the city of 206 over William R. Kraft, the Democratic candidate.

Although John Saxe, the Republican candidate for sheriff, lost several hundred votes by the fact that several of the voting machines failed to record the total vote cast for him in three Republican wards, he carried the city by 66 over John C. Shultz, the Democratic candidate. Saxe received 6,790 votes and Shultz 6,724.

Philip A. Goodwin Next Congressman
Philip A. Goodwin of Coxsack, the Republican candidate for congress from this district, has defeated his Democratic opponent, Clifford L. Miller, by a majority estimated at between three and four thousand votes. From figures received at Republican headquarters here Tuesday night and this morning Congressman-elect Goodwin carried four out of the five counties in this district. He was given a majority of over 2,000 in Ulster county; 157 in Columbia county; 900 in Greene county, and 700 in Schoharie county. He lost Sullivan county by about 800 majority.

ROOSEVELT SENDS TELEGRAM TO PRESIDENT HOOVER
New York, Nov. 9 (AP).—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt today sent the following telegram to President Hoover at Palo Alto, Cal.:

"I appreciate your generous telegram for the immediate as well as for the more distant future. I join in your gracious expression of a common purpose in helpful effort for our country."

Pennsylvania Republican.
Philadelphia, Nov. 9 (AP).—Pennsylvania, stronghold of Republicanism since the Civil War, held steadfastly to the Hoover cause today in the face of the heaviest Democratic vote in its history. Returns from three-fourths of the state's 8,199 districts, gave President Hoover 1,277,454 votes, a lead of 165,624 over Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, whose 1,111,820 surpassed even the record-breaking total polled by Alfred E. Smith in his losing battle in 1928.

Service Club Meeting
The Service Club of the Fair Street Reformed Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Clair Shaeffer, 18 Schryver Court, Friday at 2:30 p. m.

Thursday a Big Day in Masonic Circles in City

C. C. Mollenhauer, Grand Master of State of New York, to Address Masonic Gatherings That Day—Afternoon and Evening Meetings for All Master Masons.

Grand Master Christopher C. Mollenhauer of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the state of New York, will be the honor guest on Thursday of local Masonry when he will address the area meeting of the Columbia-Dutchess District and the Greene-Ulster District in a joint meeting in St. James M. E. Church that evening. There will also be an afternoon session in the lodge rooms of Kingston Lodge on Wall street.

Both meetings are open to all Master Masons.

The grand master of the state will be accompanied to Kingston by members of his staff of officers. Among the grand lodge officers who will be in attendance at this area meeting are Charles H. Johnson, grand secretary; Harold J. Richardson, past grand master; William Gettlinger, chairman of the board of general activities.

The afternoon meeting will take the form of a round table discussion of Masonic affairs and will be in charge of the grand secretary of the state. At 6 o'clock a dinner will be served for the visiting grand officers and brethren.

The big meeting of the day will be that evening at the church when the grand master will deliver the principal address of the evening. There are 24 lodges in the Columbia-Dutchess District, and 14 lodges in the Greene-Ulster District, and all of the lodges will be represented at the meeting by large delegations.

Schoonmaker Killed During Deer Hunt

Arthur Herman Schoonmaker, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Schoonmaker of Bruynswick, was almost instantly killed while hunting near his home on Monday afternoon by his chum, John Hansen, 20, of Dwaar Kill. The latter was absolved from blame by Coroner H. B. Humiston, who after an investigation, issued a certificate of accidental death.

Schoonmaker and Hansen were members of a party of four hunting on the estate of William Bruyns on Bruynswick shortly before 2 p. m. on Monday. Other members of the party were James Verbeck of Walden, uncle of the dead boy, and Maurice Crookston of Walkkill.

According to statements by members of the group, Hansen, Crookston and Schoonmaker went into a thicket as Verbeck stood in the open. Young Schoonmaker wore a khaki uniform. As the boys were thrashing through the thicket Hansen declared he mistook Schoonmaker for a deer and fired a shot from his high powered rifle. The bullet entered Schoonmaker's chest, passed directly through his heart and came out his back.

Crookston heard the shot and investigated. He found Schoonmaker lying on the ground moaning. Bruyns home and died before medical aid reached him.

Besides his parents, Schoonmaker is survived by one sister, Gertrude, and by two brothers, Richard and Harold, all of Bruynswick.

Funeral services will be held in the home on Thursday at 2 p. m. The Rev. John Dikensan will officiate. Interment will be in the Walkkill Valley Cemetery.

Our Growing Population
The following births have been reported to the Board of Health:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DuBois of West Hurley, a daughter, Margaret Jeanie, at the Benedictine Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCutcheon of 58 Broadway, a son, James Leonard.

4 Voting Machines Failed to Register Some of Vote Cast

Two Machines in Second Ward, One in Tenth Ward and One in Twelfth Ward Failed to Register Vote—Some Failed to Record Presidential Vote, Others on Sheriff and Coroner.

Although four of the voting machines used in the election in Kingston on Tuesday failed to register the vote cast for some of the offices, it is fortunate that the fact will not affect the local election as it is stated that there is no provision in the election law covering such a contingency. Some of the machines failed to record the vote on president and governor, while others failed to record the vote on justice of the supreme court and one or two of the other state offices.

The machines also failed to record the vote on sheriff and coroner, and in one ward the machine failed to register the vote on the proposition and amendment submitted to the voters.

In the first district of the Second ward one of the voting machines failed to record the vote on state officers, while one of the machines in the second district of that ward failed to register the vote on sheriff and coroner.

In the first district of the Tenth ward one of the machines failed to record the vote for president, justice of the supreme court, representative in Congress and on the amendment and proposition.

Did Not Affect Result
Even if all the votes cast for sheriff on the voting machines that did not record that vote were counted for Shultz, the Democratic candidate, he would still have been defeated by John Saxe, his Republican opponent, who rolled up a majority in the county outside of the city.

In Republican Wards
By a queer quirk of fate all four machines that went bad were in Republican wards, so the fact that they failed to register the vote cast did not affect the local election except to reduce majorities Republican candidates would otherwise have received.

Had Been Tested
The custodians of the voting machines state that they had tested all of the machines used in the city election, and when they were tested they had been found to record the vote properly.

TWO ELECTION DAY ARRESTS MADE IN KINGSTON TUESDAY

Two arrests were made in Kingston on election day, one by the police and the other by a private citizen.

The police arrested John Witkowski of Haartry street on a charge of public intoxication. He was fined $5 in police court today. Louis Countyman arrested a man giving his name as John Harris, who he charged with being disorderly in his restaurant. The disposition of the case was held open until later.

WOMAN INJURED TUESDAY WHEN CARS COLLIDED

While Charles A. Serge of Sauterles was making a left turn from Downs street into Foxhall avenue on Tuesday his car collided head-on with a car driven by Hans Schander of New York city. Mrs. Gloria Schander, who was riding in the Schander car was injured and removed to the Kingston Hospital. Her injuries are not considered serious.

Michigan First Time Democratic

Detroit, Nov. 9 (AP).—Michigan was listed as a Democratic state today for the first time in a presidential election since the formation of the Republican party. Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt piled up a lead of 25,366 votes (a slightly more than half of the state's precincts and appeared assured of being the first Democrat to receive Michigan's electoral vote since Franklin D. Pierce.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Nov. 9 (AP).—Treasury receipts for November 7 were $9,327,164.25; expenditures $23,114,174.52; balance $711,580,768.24. Customs duties for seven days of November were $7,166,107.91.

Hoover and Donovan Obtain Substantial Majorities—County and District Officers Get Safe Republican Majorities.

While official figures are lacking, it is evident that Hoover carried Ulster county by approximately 2,500, Donovan by slightly less, and the remainder of the Republican ticket by safe pluralities. Official returns were being filed today much later than usual and it was impossible for The Freeman to make a complete tabulation, a number of districts being missing at the time of going to press.

Senator Wicks probably leads the ticket in Ulster county and is re-elected.

For member of Assembly J. Edward Conway defeated William R. Kraft by more than 1,500.

Saxe for sheriff, Humiston for coroner, and McElhorne for county commissioner of public welfare are elected.

Tabulated returns, so far as obtainable, are printed elsewhere in The Freeman. A table of the presidential vote in 1928 is also printed for the satisfaction by those who care to make comparison of the Republican landslide of that year and the Democratic landslide this year.

According to latest but incomplete returns the plurality in Ulster county for Hoover for president will be about 3,000.

The plurality of Donovan for governor will be about the same as that of President Hoover.

The plurality of Senator Wicks will reach nearly 4,000.

The plurality of Goodwin for representative in Congress will exceed 2,500.

The plurality of Donovan for governor will be about 3,000.

The plurality of Conway for member of assembly over Kraft will reach 3,000.

The plurality of Saxe for sheriff over Shultz will exceed 1,000.

The vote on Amendment No. 1 is nearly a tie with a small majority of about 200 in the negative.

On Proposition No. 1 the vote is more than 2 to 1 in favor.

Women Focus Hope On Cabinet Post

Washington, Nov. 9 (AP).—One senatorship held, one governorship gained, a few seats secure in the House, today were women's election winlines—slight enough to focus feminine attention and hope on the possibility of a woman in the cabinet.

One of the outstanding arguments that Democratic women campaigners used against Hoover was that he had not rewarded his 1928 "woman-voters" with appointive posts. Their publications prophesied that a woman in the cabinet be part of the "new deal" promised by Franklin Roosevelt.

With Roosevelt's election an avalanche in which women obviously played a considerable part, the chance for "first woman" at the cabinet table became paramount, comment centered on Frances Perkins, the New York woman who has ably served Roosevelt on his state labor portfolio, for secretary of labor. Mentioned also, but in connection with other posts, have been Representative Ruth Bryan Owen, of Florida, and Nellie Tayloe Ross, former Wyoming governor.

Bond Issue Passes As Amendment Fails

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 9 (AP).—Returns from more than half the state's voting districts, including all the districts in New York city, indicated today that New York voters yesterday approved the proposal to issue $30,000,000 in bonds for unemployment relief but rejected the proposed amendment to the state constitution designed to permit the establishment of additional recreation centers within the forest preserve.

In the 5,418 New York city districts, and 1,624 of the 5,403 districts outside the city, the vote was:
Bond issue proposal: for, 1,112,
374; against 229,666.

Amendment: For, 429,517; against 724,552.

The bond issue proposal was overwhelmingly favored both in New York city and in the upstate districts where tabulations were complete, but the vote was against the amendment in all but two of the upstate counties where early figures were available.

The two counties which favored the amendment in the early count were Yates and Greene.

Hurricane Causes Distress to 3 Ships

By the Associated Press.

Three steamers were in distress today in seas off southeastern United States, two the victims of a hurricane which was expected to strike southern ports of Cuba this afternoon.

The British ship Killerie reported it was proceeding full speed to the rescue of the British freighter Phaemus, which radioed Sunday it was leaking badly about 150 miles east of Cape Gracias A Dios, Nicaragua.

The American freighter San Simon, south and east of the Phaemus and also in the wake of the hurricane, was reported out of immediate danger after it called for help when its steering gear was disabled.

The American steamer Tachira reported its engines broke down off the Florida coast and a rescue ship was standing by.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. D. Rogers of 25 East Union street announced the engagement of their daughter, Ethel, to Samuel Levinson, of Newburgh, at a dinner in their home on Sunday.

Lowell Club

The Lowell Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Van Wagoner. The afternoon's topic was "Separation from England—Reconstruction." "The Revolution and its Results" was admirably presented by Mrs. Conklin. Mrs. Van Wagoner gave an excellent paper on "The New Constitution and its Concessions."
"State Rights versus Centralization" was the subject of a valuable paper
by Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Brigham gave a most interesting talk on "Growth of Nationalism." A reading by Mrs. Snyder and music by Mrs. Augustus Van Buren brought the program to a close. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. Fred Snyder at her home, 44 Clinton avenue.

Please accept a beautiful new General Electric Refrigerator with the famous Monitor Top on trial for a full month — keep account of its daily savings — deposit them in this clock-bank — then if you decide to buy the refrigerator, the bank will make your first payment.

THAT'S FAIR ENOUGH, ISN'T IT? We claim that a General Electric Refrigerator will not only be a joy but will actually save money in your home. But we do not ask you to take our word for this claim—we simply ask the opportunity to prove it at our expense. If the clock-bank proves what we say is true then you are the winner. If not, the loss is ours—not yours. Certainly no proposition could be fairer than that.

HOW THE CLOCK-BANK WORKS

The clock-bank which we give you absolutely FREE registers the amount of money you deposit in it every day. We ask you to deposit each nickel, dime or quarter you save on each meal with your General Electric. Thousands of users tell us their average savings amount to 10¢ a meal.

At the end of the 30 day Free Trial period on a General Electric you should save approximately $9.00. If you then decide to buy the refrigerator the first payment is only $7.00. Therefore the savings from the bank will more than make the first payment—and it will continue to make the monthly payments until the refrigerator is yours.

WHY WE MAKE THIS OFFER

Many people ask us how we can afford to make such an attractive offer. This is because they think many refrigerators delivered on this plan would be returned and we would thus lose money on the deal. But the opposite is true. We have found that 9 out of every 10 housewives who use this refrigerator for one month refuse to give it up. That fact is our assurance of the soundness of the plan.

Women are quick to recognize values when they see them in their home. A General Electric Refrigerator quickly convinces them of values they have never known before—values in food preservation—values in ice cubes—values in being able to purchase large quantities of perishables on bargain marketing days. The faithful, economical performance of a General Electric—the dependable and quiet operation of the exclusive Monitor Top—the all-steel cabinet, sliding shelves and roomy storage space are other features which win a place in the heart of housewives who take pride in the equipment of their homes.

So you see it is good business for us to make this offer. It is good business for you, too, to take advantage of it. We ask only that you give a General Electric Refrigerator an opportunity to give itself to you. We do not want you even to sign an order of any kind. Merely allow us to put it in your home for 30 days, and judge the results for yourself.

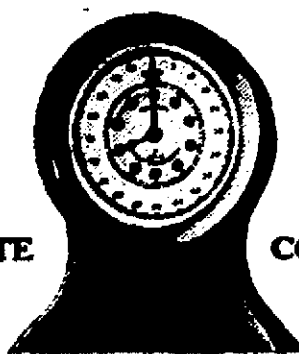

Call us today and ask for an immediate installation. Or if you prefer use the coupon below.

Friday evening, November 18, has been decided upon as the date for the county dramatic contest. The place will be the Stone Ridge Grange Hall. All contestants are to be ready for the fray at 9 o'clock.

Plattekill, Ulster Park and Patroon Grange are lined up for the dramatic battle this year, so Friday evening, November 18, bids fair to be full of interest as well as to furnish an evening's entertainment of merit.

The Plattekill players are under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Everett. Mrs. Marjorie King, of Accord is directing the play for Patroon Grange and Walter Herring is in charge of the play for Ulster Park.

Rifton, Nov. 9.—Tuesday, November 1, the 4-H Club of Rifton held a party in the school house. The school was very prettily decorated. At 7:30 the guests were all assembled outside in all sorts of fanciful costumes.

Each guest was ushered in separately and upon entering was met by a gruesome ghost with whom he was forced to shake hands. Then he was ushered into the cave of icy night, where he was told to sit.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Sunset Afternoon Frock for Mature Figures With Slender Hips.

7648. Printed silk in green tones, and in a neat small pattern was used for this pleasing model. The platings are of green chiffon in a matched shade. Groups of tucks trim shoulders and neck. A flare hip edged with plating finishes and ornaments the waist front. The plating is repeated on the outside of the sleeves. The waist of this slenderizing model and the yoke portions are fitted. The skirt is cut with comfortable flare. The sleeve is fitted with a long inner seam, and a short outer seam that also holds the plating.

Designed in 8 sizes: 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52 inches bust measure, with corresponding hip measure. A 46 inch size will require 3 1/2 yards of 54 inch material. The platings will require 3/4 yard 39 inch wide cut crosswise. To finish neck and sleeve edges with blue binding will require 1 1/2 yard 1 1/2 inch wide. The width of the dress at the lower edge with fullness extended is 2 1/2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Problems Press At Roosevelt

Washington, Nov. 9 (AP)—The swelling tidal wave of votes which today swept Franklin D. Roosevelt toward the White House washed up also prospects of new and urgent responsibilities to be thrust upon him even before he takes office next March.

Between now, with the thunder of acclaim deafening his ears, and then, when the actual duties of the presidency pass to him, Congress—the present Congress—will meet in regular session to shape the 1933-34 budget and deal with emergencies of the winter.

An chosen leader of his victorious party, affirmed by indicated majorities that stagger imagination, Governor Roosevelt's voice in party politics will be all powerful. His decisions will be backed by the presidential weapon of patronage, so soon to be given into his hand.

And party decisions of grave import to the country may be already shaping for the coming session of Congress as it attempts again, bearing the scars of the election on its face, to balance the national budget; to make good on pledges by all who fought on either side that none in the nation need go hungry or unclothed in the bitter winter months ahead.

What form those immediate questions will take awaits opening of the congressional session in December; development of the post-election relations that are to exist between President Hoover and the Senate and the House, where majorities hostile to him will rule. There will be much to do in strengthening or revising the machinery created to meet the depression emergency.

Problems Press At Roosevelt

The original relief legislation was enacted by non-partisan cooperation in the face of the impending election. There will be added urge for staking party lines and ignoring political ambitions now that the election is over.

Normally, a newly elected President would touch lightly until he actually came to power on questions pending before Congress.

The long interval between the November election and March inauguration has been given by presidents-elect to planning their own administrations. Their conferences with legislative leaders have dealt with the future rather than the present.

Whether there is to be a thrusting aside of party barriers now, with the pressing problems of this winter to deal with, an interchange of views between the outgoing and incoming presidents to expedite action, rests with the two men themselves. There is little precedent to guide them.

Fashions by Eleanor Gunn

Copper and Chromium Preferred

New York—The amount of hardware the fashionable woman is now wearing is quite amazing. Copper and chromium and brass and such things are made into clips and buckles and ornaments that are often quite barbaric in effect.

Here is a coat fastened with clips instead of buttons. The idea is repeated in ever so many different ways—on dresses most often. Dresses have a row of clips or buttons down, or part way down, the back, center or side. Or they may have them on the front, in which case sometimes a double-breasted effect is resorted to.

Great bar-pins are used on girdles, at the shoulder or neckline, and these often combine a brown, green, red or some other colored composition with the metal. This is especially true when chromium is used. Copper is more often used alone and is, by the way, one of the outstanding ornament preferences.

The shops seem literally loaded with heavy-looking ornaments as well as costume jewelry pieces. There are, among these, the very wide Vionnet bracelets and the very narrow bangles—gold wire for instance—worn by the dozen and alternating with black. A touch of black is important in costume jewelry at the moment and, if it is employed, extends the usefulness of the piece, since it seems to link it with a greater number of costumes.

The acquittal little nose veils now being worn call for pins or some sort of effective anchorage—and, by the way, these veils are a decided help in making an unbecoming hat becoming. They are expert at softening the line. Earrings are another aid—the revived button types are especially appropriate for winter, with its high collars and its tiny hats.

COAT WITH CLIP FASTENING

Copyright, 1932, by Fairchild

This coat is fashioned of a nubby tweed in an interesting shade of green, and the cape-collar of Russian sable has an upstanding collar. The coat is fitted at the waistline, fastening with clips.

Jeweling the High Neckline

Copyright, 1932, by Fairchild

Made to be worn right up at the base of the throat in the sports choker shown above at left. It is composed of flat circle rings of rhodium silver interlaced with strands of wool in various colors.

The woven treatments in beads, in this instance in bright navy blue and sun glow, is done to resemble a flange collar as the sketch at right illustrates—one way of getting around the high neckline fashion. This one is complete even to the "jabot" which falls down in front.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Interest is shown in trimmings, in novelty fastenings that make chevron outlines in sleeves, in hand-drawn work, allover gold thread embroidery, and attractive ornaments—rings that confine scarfs and belts, and rhinestone clips.

Colors in preparation for mid-winter resort wear give prominence to grays, beiges, a range of hyacinth and violet shades, coppery browns, very wearable light blues in Delft, madonna, and sky blue casts. Yellow, oranges and both rosy reds and yellow-reds will continue.

Some of the most interesting costumes introduce a gown that is especially simple worn with a jacket or wrap that has a very elaborate air, with far in lavish application on sleeves and bodice, and forming large collars.

New versions of the long-sleeved dinner gown are appearing, with combinations of colors still important, the bodice in one and the skirt in a deeper color.

Election Comment Of Foreign Nations

(By The Associated Press.)

The prospect of complete Democratic control of the American government for the first time since it was ally or foe to most of the great war found those nations looking toward the United States today for new views on war debts, disarmament, tariffs, the League of Nations and the Monroe Doctrine.

Realistic official comment on the election in foreign countries was not available immediately but newspaper predictions were abundant. Reactions in foreign capitals follow:

London.—Newspaper headlines indicated surprise at the extent of Republican defeat. Results were too late for comment except in the Daily Mail, which published an editorial entitled "Prohibition Doomed." Paris.—Greater activity by United States in world affairs and more sympathy for France was foreseen but conservative papers warned against expecting too much. Pertinax, famous political writer, said Roosevelt would steer away from the League of Nations.

Tokyo.—Government officials said it would be impolite to comment, but the general reaction appeared to be satisfaction in a change of administration.

Madrid.—Newspapers praised what they called Democratic "promises" of tariff reduction.

Berlin.—Chancellor Franz Von Papen recalled President Wilson's "fourteen points" by way of comment on the election and said the Treaty of Versailles should be replaced by a "free and equal agreement."

Rome.—Norman Davis, appointed American disarmament representative by President Hoover, continued talks with Italian officials and predicted important decisions at Geneva. He said he would go there despite the election result.

Mexico City.—The newspaper Excelsior hoped "the recent Democratic president's (Wilson's) intervention in Mexican affairs which left profound resentment" would guide Mr. Roosevelt in his relations with Spanish America.

Lima, Peru.—The newspaper El Comercio said the Democratic party "is undoubtedly less imperialistic than the Republican" which "opposed the real sense of the Monroe Doctrine."

Buenos Aires.—The newspaper Noticias said the Republicans, by their defeat, "expiate a sin of pride which brought the United States false illusions of splendid isolation" and "pushed into poverty countries supplying raw materials."

Havana, Cuba.—So-called Democratic "promises" to modify the sugar tariff, Roosevelt's "cordial and human attitude toward Cuba compared to 'frigid indifference up until now'" and his "simpler concept of the right" were cited in Cuban newspapers.

Compensation Cases.

Referee Frederick A. Hoyt will hold hearings in compensation cases at the court house, Kingston, Friday, November 11, at 9 a. m.

Background Of Mrs. Roosevelt's Busy Life Shows Varied Interests Of New First Lady

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the new President of the United States, assumes her White House responsibilities no novice in public life and affairs. At the extreme left she is shown en route to a social function, then greeting her neighbors on her first day as mistress of the governor's mansion at Albany and delivering an address in behalf of

New York (AP).—A warm personal interest in many things shapes the daily activities of the nation's new first lady.

In Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt's adherence to a well filled calendar of affairs in her home and in business friends see nothing abstract and perfunctory.

"Mrs. Roosevelt"—one close to her has said—"is interested in many things. She is not satisfied merely to be interested, but seeks to express her interest in active participation and with actual accomplishment."

For example, Mrs. Roosevelt believes capital should be put to work to give employment. She founded a furniture shop on the Roosevelt Hyde Park estate to create an industry for local people.

She has theories on educational psychology, and so she became part owner and teacher at the Todhunter School for Girls in New York.

She was interested in the welfare of the poor, and so she took active charity. To the right of one of her latest photographs she is seen helping Salvation Army workers to wrap toys for poor children, then supervising business affairs, which include a magazine editorship. At the extreme right the new first lady is shown about to depart on an airplane trip.

part in the work of the Rivington street settlement house in New York which her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Dall, is her assistant.

Residence in Washington during the days of the Wilson administration, when her husband was assistant secretary of the navy, gave her acquaintance with Washington society.

To her social contacts in the famous executive mansion, where her husband in his political career, she was rearing a family of five children.

Though in Washington, she will continue to edit the magazine on which her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Dall, is her assistant.

PUNTS and PASSES

By the Associated Press
Princeton, N. J. — Princeton's crack freshman eleven completed the season last week with a 3-6 conquest of the Yale freshmen but they've not been permitted to break training yet. They were slated to oppose the varsity in scrimmages today in the tigers last hard drill before the Yale game.

Cambridge, Mass. — It's a hard climb to the top and a steep drop to the bottom as half back Johnny Grady of Harvard has discovered. He was hailed early in the season as one of the Crimson's brightest back-field hopes. Yesterday he was demoted to the third team.

Hanover, N. H. — Dartmouth should lose to Cornell this week the blame hardly can be placed on injuries. With the return yesterday of Bill Clark, sophomore halfback, the casualty list dwindled to two, Les Huntley, guard, and Charlie Stearns, center, both substitutes.

New Haven, Conn. — Yale's varsity has given due notice to Princeton to beware an aerial barrage. The Elis scored four times on the scrubs yesterday, flashing a number of new formations, many of which were of the forward passing variety.

Providence, R. I. — Brown's 10 to 7 victory over Holy Cross left Coach Tom McLaughry far from satisfied. The Brown mentor indicated he might make shifts in both the line and backfield for the Columbia game.

New York — New York University is not enjoying a particularly brilliant season but the Violets still can point with pride to Bob McNamara as perhaps the finest punter in the east. This star punter has consistently 50 and 60 yards, and what is more to the point, they go right where he wants them to.

Yellow Jackets Practice Thursday

One practice will be held by the Yellow Jackets in preparation for their game at the Kingston Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon against the Port Jervis Police. The drill is scheduled for Thursday evening at the North Manor avenue field of the 15th Field Artillery. Every player is requested to attend.

THE DRIVERS DEFEAT CANNONEERS AT ARMORY

Again the Drivers defeated the Cannoneers in "A" Battery's indoor baseball league at the armory Monday night. The game was very close until the fifth inning; the Cannoneers drove in five runs in that inning. But the Drivers came back with seven in their part of the eighth to take a commanding lead. George Houghaling started it off by knocking a homer to bring in three runs. The Cannoneers tied the score in the last half of the ninth. The Drivers then put three men on the bases so that "Butch" Woerner could bring them all home. This he did very effectively by putting the ball into the top row of the balcony.

The score:
Drivers 110 217 238 4-21
Cannoneers 200 151 232 2-19
Batteries: Drivers, J. Costello and Roy Houghaling; Cannoneers, C. Canale and C. Kieffer.

Home runs: Drivers, G. Houghaling; Woerner; Cannoneers, Beckfield.

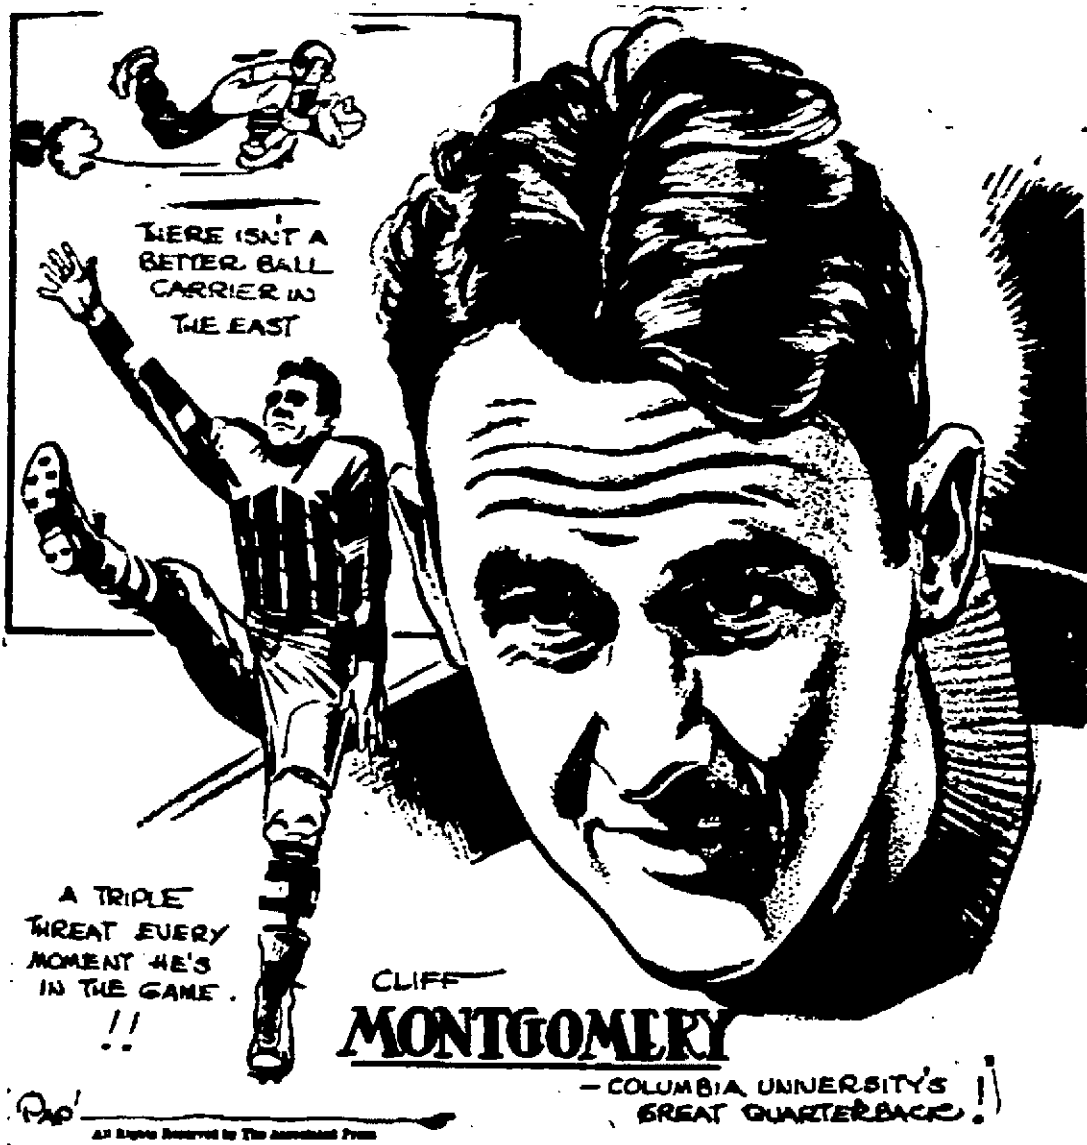

Double plays: Drivers, Yates to Roy Houghaling; Wood to Yates to Roy Houghaling.

The league standing to date is as follows:

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|------------|-----|------|------|
| Total | 2 | 1 | .500 |
| Drivers | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Cannoneers | 1 | 3 | .250 |

The Leading Lion

SPORT SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

William Barry Wood, Jr., who had a generous share of the spotlight at fair Harvard, whether (first) he liked it himself or (second) the experts thought his football performance justified it, relieves himself of some post-graduate analysis and retrospection in his abbreviated volume: "What Price Football."

Recalling a celebrated incident in which his performance was characterized in uncomplimentary terms over the air, Wood's remarks on the radio announcer, in his chapter on "Ballyhoo," seem of interest. Excerpts: "There is still one man in the press box whom we have overlooked. We find him working under conditions far more trying than those confronting the newspapermen. The radio announcer... must call the play immediately; he must identify the players himself, unless he is fortunate enough to be aided by 'spotters'... and he must hold the interest of his listeners during the brief intermissions; then comes the temptation to editorialize. When we realize... that he is blamed for all inaccurate statements, most of which are... inevitable... we readily agree that the radio announcer's job is not an easy one."

Says Mr. Wood
Writing from the viewpoint of a player who has himself been widely ballyhooed and the cover of whose book describes him as "Harvard's Great All-American Quarterback," Barry Wood says:

"(1) Most college players resent the numerous inaccurate statements made by sports-writers, which, because of the credulity of thousands of newspaper readers, become actual facts to the general public.

"(2) Since football, because of its very nature, can be regarded by the players only as a team game, the ballyhoo article featuring one star becomes to them a mere joke. Seldom does a player take such an article seriously."

May Be So—But

Perhaps the players, for the most part, share Wood's views, but the box-office-minded athletic directors would not and do not. Barry has learned or noticed enough himself to realize the rudiments of this. He describes a celebrated case of inspired ballyhoo, calculated to boost the gate receipts for a big football game, and remarks:

"The brunt of responsibility falls upon the shoulders of the (athletic) director. He must do everything possible in his power to discourage ballyhoo, handling, if possible, all publicity through his own office and giving only the most essential news facts to the reporter."

Wood evidently overlooks, however, the fact that few colleges are so advantageously endowed, situated and easily publicized as Harvard, in respect to athletics. Among most of the others, the problem, from the sports editor's viewpoint, is not one of getting "only the most essential facts" from the publicity purveyors, but of trying to locate the essentials in the mass of ballyhoo matter produced.

Rexall Aces Open Season Saturday

The Rexall Aces, last year known as the Rosendale Juniors, will open their season against the Rosendale A. C. Saturday night at Firemen's Hall, Rosendale. In the preliminary to the Firemen's contest with the Mountandale Steamrollers. On the roster of the Rexalls are Lew Auchmoody and Bill Kopp, forwards; Ed Haynes, center; Hank Rank and Hank Dittmar, guards; P. Rask, Snyder and Tyler, reserves.

Teams wishing games with the Rexalls should communicate with William Kopp, Rosendale, N. Y. He challenges the Port Ewen Aces and Hebrew-Americans.

North Dakota In West Point For Game

West Point, Nov. 9.—Headed by "Casey" Finegan, the North Dakota "Disons" arrived here Tuesday afternoon and established headquarters at Washington Hall. The squad of 35 players will have a workout twice a day until Saturday preparing to meet the Army team which has already defeated Yale and Harvard. Finegan has closely scouted West Point and is devoting all his energies toward stopping Fields, Vidal and Buckler.

Army, too, is concentrating for this game but Major Sasse is also confronted with the task of preparing for Notre Dame and Navy. While the cadet backfield is fairly well settled, considerable uncertainty exists as to who will fill "Dick" King's vacancy at left end. Jack Lawlor appears to be the strongest candidate for the position. Marx, Burlington, Kenerick and Quinn are all receiving opportunities to display their football talents in the daily practice sessions.

Excellent sideline seats can be obtained by writing to the A.A.A. here. A sale will be conducted the day of the game at the entrance to the Stadium.

Krum Is Captain Of Congregationals

The Ponckhockie Congregational basketball team at a meeting following church services last Sunday morning elected Hank Krum, center of the quietest, as captain of the brigade. Krum is considered a capable leader for as captain in four years past he piloted the churchmen through successful seasons. HIGH FALLS High Falls, Nov. 9.—Congratulations are extended to Henry R. Sweha and Elsie F. Bailey of Kingston, who were recently married in Bloomington by the Rev. Mr. Bedford.

The Rev. James Castine, D. D., of Stone Ridge had charge of the service in the Reformed church on Sunday morning. He delivered an excellent sermon and there was a fair congregation present. The coming Sunday Clarence Howard, former student pastor, will again be here. Preaching service will be at 9:45 and Sunday school at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Saul Stokes has been spending a few days with relatives in New Paltz.

Miss Alice Krom of Brooklyn has been home with her mother and sister for a few days.

Preston Church had the misfortune to lose one of his horses. Miss Lawatch of Kingston was the week-end guest of Miss Gertrude Deary.

Charles Purcell of The Clove, called on John H. Ayers on Sunday. Mrs. Frank Depuy and Mr. and Mrs. George Depuy of Brooklyn visited at the home of Mrs. C. Depuy and Miss Elizabeth Depuy on Saturday and called on other friends here. They also visited at the home of Mrs. Henry Reed of Kingston, who is a very intimate friend of the family and was a schoolmate of Mrs. Frank Depuy. They had a most enjoyable visit with their friends and relatives and Saturday was an ideal day, which added to the pleasure of their visit.

Mrs. Bennett of Pennsylvania visited her mother, Mrs. S. E. Shibley, and brother, James, the past week, returning home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gillespie of Stone Ridge were guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Beach, on Sunday.

There are several young lady boarders from the city at the home of Mr. Hassenmeyer.

Mrs. Annie Mead and Mrs. Joseph Huffy of Mead's Mountain House called at the home of Miss Mary C. Van Wageningen and of Preston Church on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Preston Church and Miss Cynthia Van Wageningen were in town on Saturday.

There were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bell of The Clove, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Presbury and son Robert, are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Maria Gheer.

Otto Perth of Montclair, N. J., spent the week-end with George Gheer. While here he went hunting and was fortunate enough to catch a deer, weighing 300 pounds. On Sunday his wife and children and his mother motored out after him and the party returned home. Their friends in Montclair will no doubt be interested to hear about the deer hunt.

LeRoy Gheer and friend Mr. Sharp, of Brooklyn, who came out for the week-end to enjoy the hunt, returned to the city on Sunday.

Mr. John Wright and son of Poughkeepsie visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Delamater, a few days the past week.

Carlton Church and boy friend of Napanoch called at the home of his father, Preston Church, on Sunday morning.

Fritz Adams had the luck to catch a deer on Saturday. There seem to be quite a few lucky hunters, and those who as yet have not landed any game, still have hopes they may win out. Most any time of the day the shots of the hunter may be heard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whipple and son, Thomas, who lived in Ulster Park, have moved to Kingston. Mr. Whipple holds a fine position as farmer for A. H. Chambers, who owns Maple Lane Farm.

Mrs. Preston Church and her aunt from Kingston motored up to Catskill on Sunday and spent the day with her niece, Mrs. Jane Overbaugh.

There was a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Schoonmaker on Saturday night in honor of the sixth birthday of their little son, Robert, and also of his little cousin, Roberta Clearwater, of Poughkeepsie. The house was very prettily decorated. There was a birthday cake with candles and gifts for the little people, who were both six years old. Mrs. Walter Sutton and family and also the relatives from Poughkeepsie were present, so it was quite a family gathering. Everyone both old and young entered into the fun and had a fine time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Aldorf, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. Gladstone and her father, Robert Nishek, of Shavertown, home for a visit, returned to her home here on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Aldorf had a delightful time and also visited at the home of Mrs. Nishek's sister while out there. Her nephew Victor G. Purcell, of The Clove, motored out to Shavertown on Sunday and brought her home.

SPINNY'S READY FOR THURSDAY NIGHT GAME

The Spiny Radio Five which last week opened its season by defeating the Bigelow Five is ready for its second home game at Pythian Hall, Port Ewen, Thursday night. Opposition will be furnished by the Columbia House of Poughkeepsie over which the Spinyrums won last week-end. The Firemen hope to even the score. Last season they won 25 out of 32 games and are rated as one of the most formidable opponents in their district. Preliminary to the feature the Port Ewen Aces will take on the Columbia House Juniors. Dancing will follow the games.

Character
Energy of character has always a power to create energy in others. It acts through sympathy, one of the most influential of human agencies. The solemn, energetic man unconsciously carries others along with him. He exercises a sort of electric power which sends a thrill through every fiber, draws into the nature of those about him, and makes them give out sparks of fire.—Samuel Butler.

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Robert McQuade is spending a few days with relatives in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watkins and son and daughter of Walden called on Mrs. Isaac Sutton and daughter Sunday afternoon.

Several ladies from here attended a missionary meeting in the Walden Reformed Church last Thursday afternoon and enjoyed hearing a talk by Mrs. Scholten, mother of the Rev. G. B. Scholten, a former pastor of this place.

About $72 was cleared at the supper held in the New Hurley Church hall on the evening of October 21. The committee wishes to thank all who helped in making this a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jansen of Gallville were callers at the Schoonmaker home last Sunday afternoon. On Sunday evening, November 27, at 8 o'clock, "The Trial of Jesus," from a law student's standpoint, will be discussed by Fred Stank in the New Hurley Church. Every one is invited to come to this service.

Sunday morning, November 13, at 11 a. m., the Rev. John B. Steketee of Kingston will preach in the New Hurley Church. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and Christian Endeavor meeting at 8 o'clock. Topic, "Good and Evil in Newspapers." Acts 2:14, Phil. 4:8. Leader, Mrs. Edward Powell.

Miss Jeanette Von Aremoon of New Paltz was a week-end guest at the home of Mrs. I. Sutton.

The Ladies' Aid Ministry of Gardner will be given in the New Hurley Church hall in Sherwood Cemetery on Friday evening, November 11, under the auspices of the Young Women's Club. Everyone invited to come and enjoy a good laugh.

Garage Fire

The firemen were called to Whitaker's garage, back of the Saxon gas station on North Front, about shortly before nine this morning. A fire just started in a small stove in the garage had ignited some gas in an open pall standing nearby. The firemen laid a line of hose and the blaze was extinguished before much damage had been done, outside of charring the woodwork a bit and burning off the electric wires.

Thomas First Fire

In primitive times thorns were the first pins, used to hold together garments of leaves. Later, sharpened bones were used for fastening coats of skin; then came metal fasteners into rude brooches.

Activities at The High School

Bids are now on sale for the Kingston High School Senior dance to be held on Thanksgiving night in the gym of the high school. The event is one of the most outstanding of the year. The committee has engaged George Smith and his seven-piece orchestra and the gym will be beautifully decorated.

The Editor-in-Chief of the Maroon, the school year book put out by the Senior class each year, has been elected. Karl Limbacher was chosen by the class to guide the work of the book. The class also elected Van Darrow as business manager. The remainder of the staff will be selected later.

Junior Class.
The Junior Class called a meeting for the election of officers the last part of last week. The following were elected:

President, K. Maroon.
Vice-president, Mary Davis.
Secretary, John Loughran.
Treasurer, Jean Rittenbury.

Mayor Eugene R. Carey will address the high school students in their regular assembly Friday morning in the auditorium.

Play to Assembly.
This morning the students gave a one-act play, "A Knot of White Ribbon" by Alice C. Thompson, for the students during the regular assembly period. This cast, consisting of three girls, was well coached by Miss Madeline Tarrant, public speaking instructor.

The cast:
Miss Ethel Farling, Bonnie Johnson, Marjorie Brant, Arlene Finkle, Libbie, Anna Pratt.

The players were introduced this morning by Ethel Wagner. The play will be repeated Thursday morning for the Freshman assembly, and Sarah Harris will introduce the players.

M. Kaplan Appointed G. E. Distributor

M. Kaplan, dealer in household goods and furniture, 3000 Park street, has been appointed distributor for General Electric refrigerator. The mechanism of the General Electric Junior is on top of the cabinet and is composed of but three moving parts. The compressor unit operates in a permanent bath of oil. The cabinet and insulation used in the new model are of exactly the same quality as that used in the Monitor top and the interior is porcelain lined.

Beginning in October, when the 4-foot models will be available, the electric refrigeration department of General Electric Co. will launch a nationwide newspaper advertising campaign, promoting the sale of both the Monitor Top and its companion refrigerator, the General Electric Junior.

Hurley P. T. A. Friday.
The Hurley Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting Friday afternoon, November 11, at the school. The meeting will begin promptly at three o'clock. An interesting debate has been arranged by the upper classmen of the school. The organization invites all members to be present.

Democratic, President Hoover sat in his Palo Alto home, weary from a campaign carried on aggressively clear through Election Day itself. Toward midnight he had cast his vote in his home precinct. Surrounded by a small group of close friends he watched the disappointing totals accumulate. Some time soon after midnight, by California clocks, he penned a brief message to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"I congratulate you on the opportunity that has come to you to be of service to the country and I wish for you a most successful administration. In the common purpose of all of us I shall dedicate myself to every possible effort." The President fingered the communication for a short while, then dispatched it.

HIGH FALLS SCHOOL NOTES FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

The following pupils of High Falls School had a perfect attendance record for the month of October: Spencer Terwilliger, Junior Winschell, Charles Burkans, Kelton Janzen, Robert Sutton, Mark Donnelly, Filomena DePilla, Jessie Quick, Margaret Schoonmaker, Helen Dyer, Mae Griffin, Dorothy Ransom, Arabel Smith, Edna Winschell, Margaret Sheeley, Donald Briggs, Billy Briggs, Ernest Christians, Raymond DeBols, Raymond Krom, Robert LaFolite, Frederick Quick, Clayton Sutton, John Sheeley, Dolores Ayars, Frances Barabart, Dolores Boecher, Florence Burkans, Lois Parry, Marie Smith, Marjorie Van Kleeck, Lucile Wells, Robert Countryman, John Feuerbach, George Jeffers, Edward Muller, Jr., Raymond Smith, Charles Stokes, Arnold Van Laer, Donald Williams, Doris Burkans, Edna Countryman, Vera Countryman, Geraldine Crispell, Dorothy Jeffers, Edith Williams, Ruth Williams and Marion Sheeley.

The report cards made their first appearance this month. Thomas Donnelly, Florence Christians, Marjorie Van Kleeck, Beatrice Tannenbaum, Frances Ranshart, Esther Schwartz, Virginia Coan, Raymond Smith and Dorothy Tannenbaum were honor students. The standard set for selecting honor students is of severity high, hence the honor attached to it. Nevertheless, besides the above mentioned, several came very near reaching the mark.

The Friday morning assembly programs are proving to be of much interest. The aim of the teacher is to have each child become accustomed to speaking before an audience.

Halloween was fittingly observed by an assembly program of stories and poems followed by a parade through the village. Many and varied were the costumes worn. The school feels badly that more could not have seen the line of over 50 children as they marched along.

A cordial invitation is extended to the parents and friends to visit the school and to see the work that is being done.

Egg Auction Was Dull on Tuesday

The Mid-Hudson Egg Auction was slightly dull on Tuesday, November 8, probably due to election day. The prices were fair for the quality offered. Ninety-four cases were sold. Fancy large white eggs sold at 44 1/2 and 44 1/2 cents per dozen. Grade A large brought 41 to 42 1/2 cents. Fancy mediums 32 1/2 to 37 cents. Grade A mediums 22 to 33 1/2. One lot of medium browns sold for 20 1/2 cents. Fancy pullets 27 and 28 cents and Grade A pullets 24 1/2 to 29. Peewees brought 22 1/2 cents. The higher prices of some Grade A over fancy was due to the larger size of eggs in some cases.

According to Albert Kurdt, it would be advantageous for the producer to candle eggs sent to the auction. Several buyers were not supplied with eggs because they could not get the volume desired. In some cases, candling may not return a premium at the present time, but ultimately lot numbers on candled, well graded, and larger sized eggs within the grade, will receive a substantial premium over others. The next auction will be held on Friday. Auctions are held regularly each Tuesday and Friday.

Bootleg Booze Killed James May

The Catekill Mall of Tuesday says: Bootleg booze exacted its toll this morning when James N. May, 32, of North Carolina, died at his boarding place in this village, a victim of poison liquor.

May, who was employed as a master mechanic on the East Durham road construction project, left Catekill last Saturday with three friends to spend the week-end in Kingston and Newburgh.

They visited a number of speaking engagements on the way and consumed a large quantity of liquor. When they returned to town Sunday afternoon, all members of the party are said to have been intoxicated.

A few hours later May went blind. His companions gradually sobered and suffered no further ill effects. Friends stated that he was engaged to a Kingston girl; that they planned to wed in the early future. The girl and her mother were at the bedside this morning.

Wall Street in Previous Election

New York, Nov. 9 (AP)—Wall Street statisticians and economic experts were busy comparing today's "morning after" reaction of the stock market with past performances of listed shares following national elections.

Most of the economic experts, as usual, advanced varying interpretations of the market's response, or non-response, to the country's presidential choice and cited facts and figures to prove that history can, or cannot, be followed in the buying or selling of securities.

As a matter of fact, the market on the day following the past nine national elections has advanced in greater or lesser degree. The statisticians were in agreement as to the facts, but differed materially as to the why and wherefore.

In the 1928 presidential year, on the day before election, the average for 50 leading stocks recorded a gain of 1.29 points with principal activity centered in the industrial group. On the day following the contest, stocks opened 2 to 10 points higher in the most active market.

Gas Vapor Ignited From Garage Stove

This morning while Howard Whitaker and Bernard Weber were busy making some repairs to Weber's truck in the public garage of William Styles in the rear of 115 North Front street, they poured gasoline into a pail and the vapor from the gas became ignited from a fresh fire that had been started in the stove in the garage. Whitaker was slightly burned and the roof timbers of the garage caught fire. The damage to the building, however, was slight.

Firemen Were Busy Fighting Bonfires

Election day bonfires kept the fire department busy Tuesday evening in Kingston. At 8 o'clock they were called for a bonfire opposite Schoel No. 2, by an alarm from Box 144. Another alarm from that box was sounded at 10:42 o'clock for a bonfire. At 11:27 o'clock an alarm was sounded from Box 27 for a bonfire off Hudson street. The fire department also responded to calls that night for bonfires at Hasbrouck Park and the corner of Ann and Murray streets, and also for dump fires at Albany street and Delaware avenue and one in the old quarry hole in Poughkeepsie.

Famous Flute Maker

Theodore Hobbs was perhaps the originator and outstanding flute maker of what is known as the modern flute. He manufactured flutes in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. They originally were made of metal, but later were made out of cane wood.
